AUTUMN & WINTER WORKSHOPS

Autumn and winter can be a good time to bring in extra income with small, seasonal workshops. Think beyond the traditional Christmas wreath and make the most of your flowers, foliage, dried materials and quieter days. Here are some ideas to get you thinking...

- Autumn Abundance – a generous seasonal arrangement packed with texture
- Harvest Table – create a centrepiece using flowers, foliage, fruits, berries and seedheads
- Autumn in a Bowl – seasonal flowers arranged naturally into a bowl or compote
- The Foraged Look – creating a natural, gathered arrangement
- Autumn Door Garland – an alternative to the traditional wreath
- Berries, Branches & Blooms
- Autumn Meadow – grasses, seedheads and seasonal flowers
- From Garden to Table – using garden flowers and foliage for an autumn table design
- The Long-Lasting Bouquet – a stylish posy of dried materials
- Fresh & Dried Together – creating a contemporary arrangement using both materials
- An Autumn Posy Bar – customers choose from a selection of seasonal materials
- Make a Floral Pumpkin – a more grown-up take on autumn/Halloween
- Botanical Halloween – natural, atmospheric Halloween flowers and decorations
- Dark & Moody Flowers – working with deeper autumn colours and interesting textures
- Autumn Candlelight – flowers and candles for an autumn table
- Bring the Outside In – branches, foliage, seedheads and seasonal flowers
